

Rehabilitation Counseling Program

Dept. of Educational, School & Counseling Psychology
University of Missouri-Columbia

Course Requirements and Recommended Sequence Curriculum

The following outlines the suggested course sequence for the completion of the M.Ed. degree. The sequence can be adjusted; however, prior approval from the student's advisor is required.

Fall (1st Semester)

7120	Foundations of Counseling Psychology (R)	3
7180	Foundations of Rehabilitation (R)	3
8500	Rehabilitation Counseling (R)	3
7170	Introduction to Educational Statistics (R)	3
Total Credit Hours		12

Winter (2nd semester)

8082	Foundations of Educational and Psychological Measurement (R)	3
8040	Counseling Methods and Practices (R)	3
8510	Medical and Psychological Aspects of Disability (R)	3
8020	Overview of Educational Research (R)	3
Total Credit Hours		12

Summer (3rd semester)

8520	Job Acquisition for Individuals with Disabilities (R)	3
8220	Vocational Assessment of Individuals with Disabilities (R)	3
Total Credit Hours		6

Fall (4th semester)

8940	Counseling Psychology Practicum (R)	3
8070	Ethical and Legal Issues in Psychological Practice (R)	3
8640	Interviewing, Diagnosis and Assessment (R)	3
Total Credit Hours		9

Winter (5th semester)

8940	Counseling Psychology Practicum (R)	3
8110	Methods in Group Counseling (R)	3
8135	Foundations of Career Psychology (R)	3
8590	Multicultural Counseling Competencies	3
or		or
9000	Multicultural Issues in Counseling (R)	3
Total Credit Hours		12

Summer (6th semester)

8946	Rehabilitation Counseling Internship (R)	6
Total Credit Hours		6

57 Total Credit Hours

Students completing M.Ed. are required to pass a comprehensive examination during their final semester. Beginning WS 2004 the Certification for Rehabilitation Counseling national examination will be substituted for the departmental comprehensive examination for the Master's degree.

Beginning FS 2003: 8020, 8110, and additional 3 hours of practicum will increase required program credit hours from 48 to 57.